

2.2 APPLICATION OF REGULATIONS - All existing and future structures and uses of premises within Hancock County shall conform with all applicable provisions of this zoning regulation. Each zoning district is established to permit only those uses specifically listed as permitted, except as provided under the conditional use provisions, and is intended for the protection of those uses. No other uses are permitted.