

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

Hancock County Fiscal Court is accepting applications for a full-time and part-time 911 telecommunicator positions. Starting pay for a non-experienced telecommunicator is $14.56.

QUALIFICATIONS AND REQUIREMENTS

- Pass drug screen, criminal background check, and Polygraph. Including submission of fingerprints to KSP and FBI
- Must take a psychological suitability screener.
- Must be at least 18 years of age or older
- After employment, a new hire will attend a 4-week Public-Safety Dispatch Academy at Eastern Kentucky University.
- Requires shift work, of which you will be assigned, including nights, weekends, holidays and personally important days such as birthdays and anniversaries.
- Ability to speak clearly in verbal communications and to remain calm during emergencies, unusual events or disasters
- Ability to make decisions quickly with little margin of error
- Ability to handle multiple tasks simultaneously
- Ability to develop and maintain effective working relationships with public officials, other employees, and the public
- Not have been convicted of a felony

Applications MUST be picked up and turned in at the Hancock County Career Center, 1605 US HWY 60 W, Hawesville. ONLY applications turned in at the Career Center will be considered for employment. Deadline to apply is Friday, March 3, 2023, 3:00 pm. Hancock County Fiscal Court is an equal opportunity employer.